Professional Legal Assistance

Commonwealth Benefits Group has access to in-house Council housed in the Indianapolis Office and a large national law firm to provide our clients with comprehensive legal services.

Danielle Capilla - Danielle is the Chief Compliance Officer of United Benefit Advisors (UBA). Danielle is responsible for providing assistance to partner firms and their clients on a variety of compliance issues that affect fully insured and self-funded plans, including, but not limited to, the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act. Danielle is a senior editor/writer, and was responsible for analysis, writing, and editing for Wolters Kluwer Law & Business publications, which report on all pertinent state and federal issues involving PPACA, the Food and Drug Administration, the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid, and health care reimbursement and compliance. Additionally, she is responsible for analyzing Supreme Court and appellate cases, state and federal legislation, regulations, FDA guidance documents, Federal Register notices, and OIG and GAO reports for analysis and publication, with her primary readership being compliance officers, law firms, and hospitals.

Danielle is charged with leadership of UBA's approach to the continued implementation of the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act (PPACA) as well as expanding UBA's collective expertise in ERISA, HIPAA, COBRA, and developing compliance into a strategic asset to aid in selling and building of the UBA value proposition.
